

New York City Student Trip

New York City – The Big Apple!

Groups love the Big Apple, a city of wonders! Whether you're a performing group, senior class, dance studio, or an educational group, New York City will have something for you. New York City has some of the most historic landmarks and attractions in America, but it is also the perfect location to showcase your group's talents.

Are you ready to bring your choir to New York City? There are a large variety of workshops or a chance to work one on one with a Broadway performer learning choreography and music from a popular show? Maybe you're interested in taking your orchestra or band to the Lincoln Center for a world renowned performance by the New York Philharmonic complete with a Pre-Concert Lecture? Four Seasons Tours is ready to accommodate all your group's needs. We can arrange a wide variety of opportunities for your group including:

- * Perform at Carnegie Hall
- * Participate in the Jazz Festival
- * Choir Workshops
- * Media Production Workshops
- * Performance Opportunities at local attractions and landmarks
- * Instrumental Workshops
- * Show Choir Master Classes
- * Wicked: Behind the Emerald Curtain Insider Experience
- * Theatre District Walking Tours
- * Meet & Greet Party with the cast of a Broadway Show
- * Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine (Choirs performance only)
- * Lincoln Center (performance)
- * South Street Seaport (performance)
- * St. Patrick's Cathedral (performance)
- * Statue of Liberty (performance)
- * The Intrepid Sea, Air and Space Museum (performance)
- * The United Nations (performance)

Travel plans to New York City will come down to careful and precise planning. Moving around in New York City can seem very difficult at times, especially during particular times of the year. This is why it's very important to book your trip with a company such as Four Seasons Tours. We're highly experienced in travel to the New York City area.

Contact our sales office for more information on a New York City trip and other destinations as well.